Agenda and Resolutions

Minutes of Anti-Ragging and Sexual Harassment Cell

The Anti-Ragging and Sexual Harassment Cell Meeting of the members of Trinity College for Women, Namakkal, for the academic year 2024-2025, started sharply on July 15, 2024 (Monday) at 3 p.m.

Dr. M.R. Lakshiminarayanan, Principal, Trinity College for Women, Namakkal, delivered the welcome address.

The main aim for executing the meeting is to create a ragging-free campus on the subject of the students to come together and develop their educational experience without any hindrance, for the growth of students in both educational curriculum and extracurricular activities.

The various suggestions given by the members of the AR & SHC committee

1. Anti-ragging display notices are to be placed on all the department notice boards.
2. Conducting special orientation programs for the students related to ragging and sexual harassment.
3. Monitoring the students during lunch breaks and intervals.
4. Instructing the students about whom to communicate with in case of ragging.
5. Organizing the fresher's day for first-year students and the farewell day for outgoing students regularly

Finally, Mrs. M. Malathi, Coordinator, Anti-Ragging and Sexual Harassment Cell of Trinity College for Women, proposed the vote of thanks. For the past 25 years, from the beginning, there have been no ragging or sexual harassment incidents held in our college as well as outside of the campus, she proudly said.
